

Washington Under the Calcium.

The vacation schools will open Monday.

Mr. Eugene Peebles has gone to Staten Island for the summer.

Don't forget the Excelsior Pleasure Park when you plan for an outing.

Miss Minnie Gaines, of 1650 11th street northwest, is regaining her health.

Miss Rosa Nalls, of 1221 W street, has gone to Oswego, N. Y., for the summer.

Mrs. R. D. Harris has returned to her home in Charlotte, N. C., after a lengthy visit here.

Miss Mary Fleming has returned from a pleasant visit to Mrs. J. M. D. Dorsey in Baltimore.

Mrs. Lottie Wilson, the artist, will keep her studio open all the summer at 805 M street northwest.

The best results can be obtained at A. H. Cooper's, our up-to-date colored tailor, 925 18th street, northwest.

Lincoln Memorial Temple will have a millinery department in the fall, under the direction of Mrs. M. C. Underdown.

Mrs. A. O. Stafford has returned to her home in Baltimore greatly improved after successfully undergoing an operation here.

Mr. Eugene Silence has gone to Duluth, Minn., for the summer, and may conclude to locate permanently in that great northwest.

Mrs. Madge Dyer White, who has been under special treatment for some time at Freedmen's Hospital, is reported much better.

Sunday evening services have been discontinued at St. Luke's P. E. church. The Wednesday evening service will be held for a time yet, beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

Miss Alice Wilson, Mr. J. Austin, Miss Josephine Wormley, Mrs. Julia McAdoo and Miss Daisy Reed have been visiting in Baltimore.

Mr. James H. Hudnell of Castleberg's jewelry house, is in New York for a few days, the guest of Mrs. H. M. Cain, 260 West 53rd street.

Letters to this office indicate that Register J. W. Lyons' speeches at New Albany, Ind., Hampton, Va., and other points scored a "hit."

The Second Baptist Lyceum leads the van by electing delegates to the National Negro Business League at Richmond and to the National Afro-American Council at St. Paul.

Mr. Samuel Walker, a graduate of the law department of Howard University, expects to hang out his "shingle" at Charlottesville, Va.

Mr. Charles E. Brown will have charge of the culinary department at the summer residence of Dr. Bigelow, of Boston, at Tuckernuck Island.

The Hawaiian singers attracted a large audience to Plymouth Congregational church Sunday evening, despite the hot weather. All were well paid however, by the excellence of the music.

Prof. J. A. Lankford, of Shaw University, and his charming wife, are stopping with Mrs. Matthews 1920 11th street northwest pending the erection of the new building of the True Reformers.

The presentation of the Sojourner Truth-Abraham Lincoln painting to President Roosevelt by our favorite artist, Mrs. Lottie Wilson, has been widely complimented by the press of the country.

An impromptu musicale was given at the home of Mrs. Hamer of Mosher street, Baltimore, last week, by Mrs. Lula Messer Davis in honor of Mrs. McAdoo of Washington. Misses Brown Hatchett and Jackson, aided by Mr. Brooks, assisted in entertaining the guest.

Dr. W. S. Lofton will head a large party going to Baltimore tomorrow to attend the pontifical mass, following the ordination of Father J. Harry Dorsey to the priesthood. The services will begin at St. Francis Xavier church at 11 a. m. The Washington party leave the B. and O. depot here at 7:30 o'clock. The ordination of Father Dorsey has attracted national attention.

Mrs. F. P. Williston, of Fayetteville, N. C., who has been on a two months' visit in this vicinity, the guest of her son, Dr. E. D. Williston, left for her home Tuesday of last week, accompanied by her son, Dr. James T. Williston, a recent graduate of the Pharmaceutical Department of Howard University, who goes to North Carolina to take the examination before the State Medical Board.

Miss Florence Matthews, the efficient chief clerk in the office of Attorney W. L. Pollard will be united in marriage June 30th to Mr. Warner Jones at the home of the bride in Brookland, D. C. The happy couple will reside at Fortres Monroe where Mr. Jones is engaged in the dairy business.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Buckner request the honor of the presence of friends at the marriage of their daughter, Emma V. Russell to Dr. Elijah H. Allen, Wednesday evening June 25th at 8 o'clock. Reception from 8:30 to 10, 1827 Vermont Avenue. At home after June 25th at 1115 4th street northwest.

Rev. O. M. Waller preached a strong sermon Sunday morning at St. Luke's on "The Ethics of Betting and Gambling." He condemned gamblers of chance as "getting riches not by right," and pointed out that gamblers habitually violate every commandment in the decalogue. This class of sermons come close to the people and have a practical value.

Mrs. S. M. Pierre left this city on 1st of May for Charlottesville, Va., where she will spend the summer with her aunt, Mrs. Catherine Page. Mrs. Pierre is being highly entertained by the best families of that city, and is very much improved in health. She will return the 1st of September. Dr. S. M. Pierre is keeping bachelor quarters at their cosy home, 2046 L street northwest, where they have recently gone to housekeeping.

Sayings From Summit.

Summit, Miss., Special—Mrs. Laura Powell is absent this week, visiting her son, Prof. J. H. Powell and family in Edward, Miss. Mr. J. Martin, of McComb City, was the guest of friends here Monday. Miss Hattie Thorpe, a young and charming lady, was the guest of friends in the country Sunday. Mrs. M. M. Powell, of Magnolia, was a visitor to Summit Sunday, the guest of Rev. E. Bryant and family. Young men and ladies, when you need your suits cleaned and pressed call on Mr. J. E. Mason, on Robb street at Rev. E. Bryant's grocery store. When our citizens need a shave or hair cut, call on Mr. W. M. McPhony. He will be glad to meet you. Miss Stella Preston, spent three days in New Orleans, visiting friends. Hon. Charles H. Smiley, news agent, spent Wednesday in Jackson on business. People here are

I WILL SET YOU UP IN BUSINESS

MY CONDITIONS ARE SO SLIGHT THAT THEY COME WITHIN THE REACH OF ALL.

I want you to write to me and send me your name and address on a postal card. I am in a position to put you in the way of making more money in one day than you can make in one month at the ordinary vocations of life. I don't care how well you may be doing or how good the job is that you already hold. I know that when you get my reply to your postal card that you will give up everything and work for me. If you will only do as I shall tell you, and follow the instructions that I shall give you, you will be your own "Boss," and sit at your own desk in your own office. This is no fake, but a true and honest chance that I offer to every man or woman, black or white. I make no discrimination as to color, race, or condition. If you are willing to work, I am willing to help you on to independence. This is the chance of your lifetime. Do not delay; send me your name and address to-day, and I will send you a VALUABLE PRESENT FREE!

Write to

WM. T. MARTIN,

1700 Lucas Avenue,
ST. LOUIS, MO.

H. K. FULTON'S

Loan Office

314 9th Street Northwest.

(ESTABLISHED 1870.)

MONEY LOANED ON

Watches, Diamonds, Jewelry, Silverware Etc.

Unredeemed Watches, Diamonds and Jewelry For Sale. Old GOLD and SILVER Bought.

The most Reliable Place in the City to Borrow Money.

greatly interested in reading The Colored American, the best colored paper in the country.

Mrs. L. E. Donaldson's Demise

Mrs. Laura E. Donaldson, who for a number of years owned the largest colored retail and wholesale grocery establishment in the city of Aberdeen, Miss., died at her home on the 12th inst. Mrs. Donaldson was an aunt of the well known Washington correspondent, Roscoe Simmons.

Judge Terrell's Popularity

Judge Robert H. Terrell, a former resident of Massachusetts, who is now holding a judicial position at Washington, D. C., is becoming quite popular by the fairness of his legal decisions.—Boston Advocate.